There seems to be much talk of war. That is common sense and so are these. Others may say are not. But they are. They are not what it's all about. However, not any wish to say that I know all about the fray. My thoughts about it I will not meet. Because that is not my intention.

From leads after we hear strange news. The newspaper there are taught to use. The source from school the they may be. The rifle. It is all to see.

The best of dreams, the bugle call. They seem to be for one and all. Yet someone here was heard to say. They are not just as bad as they?

Friend of mine, listen now to me. I know you wonder how this can be. If you'll tell me one, I'll make it.

RUCIDUS, MERCY-ALVING
HARK FANNIE IN CHURCH
PROVINCIAL TROUBLED

CHENUTO—Sueban Province China, April 20.—Wholesale murders and "necro" slayings were reported Monday in Sueban province once the "paradise of China."
This section is suffering the worst famine with an accompanying death in China's history. Reports show that dogs and cats have been eaten and even rodents are prized by hunger-stricken peasants and dying legions. Although reports are reduced in cooking and eating human flesh from the Indian of relations, dead through starvation. About 300,000 persons are affected instead of the 500,000 first reported.

Officials said the situation primarily was a result of Communist incursions during the past two years.

The area today is barren. Not a sheep, pig, fowl or even vegetable. The landers not only took all of these but the seed grain, doubling the surviving people.

White play is being made into soap. It is called a "hunger slaying" since it seems to demand the agonies of hunger. But this is virtually soap aside as the carbon soap clogs the digestive tract with a resulting slow and agonizing death.

Newspaper accounts said many families have committed suicide on the streets, leaving their children, and then killing themselves to escape the suffering.

Not a Famine
A lady on entering a railway station with 15 of a family was asked where the father asked her if they were all hers or if it was a picnic. "Yes," replied the lady, "they are mine—and it is a picnic!"—They are.

WHEAT SPECULATION CALLED NECESSARY

OTTAWA, April 21.—Declaring speculators on the wheat market carried a "legitimate amount" of profit, the Alberta Wheat Producers' Association, shared concern by producers and consumers to stabilize the price. A. E. Thayer, secretary of the Wheat Producers' Association, said that the special house committee on wheat has a detailed description of inflation operations involved in the marketing of Canada's grain crop.

Black credit furnished the bulk of the wheat industry, with the grain as collateral, he said. Producers in the 1928 crop from spring to export required $300,000,000 of bank credit, the brief history of wheat in a normal year.
